

FROM THURSDAY'S DAY.

Turkeys for sale at J. L. Fisher's.

J. M. W. Moore has returned from his visit to Phoenix.

Ex-Governor Tittle continues to push work on his water enterprise.

Dr. J. M. Marshall, the Flagstaff dentist, is in town, located at the Williams House.

Miss Laurette Lovell, of Tucson, commissioner for Arizona to the World's Columbian Exposition, has left for Chicago, to be present at the meeting of the commissioners.

Mr. N. Moore, wife and daughter, of Chicago, Illinois, father member and sister of our townsman, J. M. W. Moore, are visiting the latter and his family in Prescott.

Dr. D. J. Brannon, Isaac T. Lane, James L. Black, P. C. Brannon and W. G. Stewart came in on last night's train from Flagstaff. The first four made final report to the officers of the land office today.

The announcement of Dan Hatz, for reelection as city assessor, appears in this issue. Mr. Hatz is too well known to every man, woman and child in Prescott to need any introduction from the Journal-Miner. Suffice it to say that he has filed the office acceptably during the past year.

Friends of Frank Andrews are urging him to become a candidate for chief of police at the coming municipal election. Mr. Andrews is a thoroughly sober, industrious and reliable young man, is an energetic member of the fire department, and is in every way qualified for the position.

During the memorial exercises in the district court yesterday in reference to the death of the late ex-Chief Justice Sumner Howard, Col. J. F. Wilson, Col. L. F. Eggers and John C. Herndon, Reg., paid eloquent tributes to his character. Ex-Chief Justice Wright was also called on, but as he had prepared the resolutions found elsewhere, he thought he could add nothing and declined.

The Albuquerque Democrat contains the following, which will be read with regret by Major J. W. Donnelly's many friends in Prescott and elsewhere: "It is with regret that we chronicle the sudden death of George D. Donnelly at Chicago. The deceased was a younger brother of Mr. J. W. Donnelly of this city, and was well known by a majority of the people in this and Arizona Territory. The deceased was the Arizona Lumber and Timber Company of Flagstaff. Mr. Donnelly has the sympathy of his many friends."

The December "Season," just out, will be received with delight by the ladies. It is filled with novelties for dress and home decoration. The costumes displayed are unusually handsome and appropriate for the winter season. Furs, astrachan, velvets, plushes, and a heavy fringe for trimming gowns and mantles predominate; the very newest feature being the fringes shown, and the very effective manner in which it is arranged. This number also contains a very desirable hat plate, colored, to show the different combinations in trimming, and the Supplement, given with the December "Season," is in itself almost invaluable; the designs are perfect and so plainly illustrated as to be easily reproduced. Colored plate $56 shows new styles of outdoor garments for ladies and for a mix of ten or twelve years. $57 gives two handsome carriage costumes and one home reception toilette. The embroidery, knitting, braiding, and fine art work far surpasses any heretofore displayed, and in no other journal can be found the same high class designs, which alone make the work value this journal above all others. Yearly price $3.50. Single copies 30 cts.

Arizona Territory's Progress: The Chino Valley (Cal.) Champion, edited and published by an ex-Arizonian, contains the following concerning this territory:

"Acting Governor N. O. Murphy sends the Champion his report to the Interior Department. It covers 34 pages and contains evidence of steady progress in material development. Thirteen years of business in that territory enables the writer to say truthfully that it is a very good all-around land for robust, energetic people who are willing to build from the ground up. It has had many difficulties to encounter, chiefly the hostility of Indians which is not yet altogether a thing of the past. Twenty years ago last April the writer was over 20 days going from San Diego to Tucson by private conveyance, though the mail backboards and stages made the trip in five. Now two overland railways pass over it with a pretty good third ending in Guaymas, in Sonora, and some short interior lines. Fresh fruit was then 50 cents to $1 a pound; now it is abundantly grown there. Then there were no public schools; now there are hundreds. Then there were but three weekly papers; now there are a lot of dailies and many weeklies. Then there were no churches save the Catholic; now all denominations are represented with many fine buildings. Then there was but one Masonic lodge; now there are many, with a Grand Lodge, and nearly all other fraternal societies have organizations all over the Territory. Then there were no telegraphs or telephones; now there are thousands of miles of lines. Then Salt River Valley contained less than half a dozen houses; now it has a flourishing city with all the modern appliances. All these and other like facts attest the natural wealth of the Territory. The writer's familiarity with all kindly feeling for Arizona frequently tempts him to print much about the good points of a land that has made great progress against great obstacles, natural and artificial."

IN MEMORIAM.

The following resolutions were presented to the court, yesterday, in reference to the late ex-Chief Justice Sumner Howard, who died recently at his home at Flint Michigan.

To the Hon. Henry C. Gooding, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, and presiding Judge of the Third Judicial District, in and for the County of Yavapai, Arizona.

The undersigned committee, appointed by this court to report suitable resolutions touching the death of the Hon. Sumner Howard, late Chief Justice of this Territory, respectfully submit the following:

WHEREAS, It pleases an All-wise Providence to remove from earth, at his late home, near the city of Flint, in the state of Michigan, Judge Sumner Howard, late a member of this bar, and formerly a distinguished Chief Justice of this Territory, therefore be it

Resolved, That in the death of Judge Howard, the bar of this, the Third Judicial District, and that of the Supreme Court of this Territory, have lost one of their brightest members and most profound lawyers.

Resolved, That as an advocate, it is the sense of this committee that Judge Sumner Howard had no superior at this bar. Aeschylus, caetera and poetizing in the preparation of his case, he clung to the interests of his clients with great tenacity of purpose, wealth of learning, and loyalty of devotion.

Resolved, That as a practicing attorney, Judge Howard was always courteous, professional and dignified in his intercourse with the courts and his brother lawyers; as a member of society, he was refined and genial in manner, social, and considerate in action, ever exhibiting due regard for the tastes, pleasures and feelings of others; as a neighbor and citizen he was kind and helpful, charitable and benevolent, ever solicitous to relieve distress and meritorious want and, withal, cheerfully lent encouragement to every enterprise calculated to subserve the public good; whilst, as a friend he was brave and manly, standing as readily in the shadow, as in the sunshine.

Resolved, That the unforgotten sympathies of the members of this bar are hereby extended to Judge Howard's honored widow, with whom we condole no less sincerely for the loss of her distinguished husband, in the zenith of his manhood, than for the loss of their only daughter, the bright, the pure and gifted Mrs. May Howard Foot.

And your committee would respectfully ask that an engrossed copy of this report be forwarded to the widow of our cherished brother, that a copy of the same may be spread upon the minutes of this court, and that a copy may also be furnished to each of the daily papers for publication.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES H. HAWKINS,
JOHN C. HERNDON,
HARVEY BALDWIN,
JOHN HOWARD.

On motion, court adjourned in token of respect for the memory of the deceased.

Literary Notes.

The Christmas edition of the Cosmopolitan Magazine is one hundred thousand copies. The order, as originally given to the printers, was for 85,000 copies, but while on the press it was thought advisable to increase the number to 100,000.

It contains a feature never before attempted by any magazine, consisting of 123 cartoons from the brush of Dan Board, the now famous artist, who did such wonderful illustrations in Mark Twain's book, "The Yankee at the Court of King Arthur."

These cartoons are placed at the bottom of each page of the magazine, and take for their subject, "Christmas during the Eighteenth Centuries, the Christian Era," with variations, showing the way in which modern Christians carry out some of the chief texts of the Christian Gospel.

The frontispiece of the Cosmopolitan have of late become noted for their beauty, some of them having as much as four printings. That for Christmas, while in but two printings, is not being anything that has preceded it in artistic merit.

The Christmas issue contains 228 illustrations, nearly double the number that have ever appeared in any illustrated magazine.
